HOW DO I JOIN A LALC?

I want to be a new LALC member

I am an existing LALC member but my details have changed

New Member Application form

Previous Member form

Fill out a New Member application

Fill out a Previous Members form

Available from LALC CEO

Available from LALC CEO

Give the completed form to the LALC you wish to join

LALC members vote on your membership application at a meeting. If successful you will become a non-voting member of the LALC straight away

If you wish to be a voting member, your voting status must first be confirmed by the Registrar, ALRA

CEO enters your name on the LALC membership roll

Your previous voting status will be resumed

CEO sends your application form to the Registrar, Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983

54(3) c form

Confirmation of voting status

The Registrar sends confirmation of your voting status to you and your LALC. You will then be noted on your LALC roll as a voting member

Available for LALC CEO or Registrar
